

There are many plights that people are fighting with in the world today, but not all are able to reach out to God. There are so many cases of death, destruction, sadness, and violence because people do not have hope in the right place. One man by the name of Stanthony has dedicated himself to be an advocate for people who need prayers. He has written a book entitled "The 37 Best Websites to Learn Something New" that individuals can use as a reference for topics they would like pray about while offering faith-based websites where individuals can go online and send prayer requests. The book is also available for purchase on Amazon.com. "To have peace in this world, people must have peace in themselves". That is the most important message that people can learn from this book. The most basic of all prayers is to pray for peace of mind. As humans, we are only able to concentrate on tasks if we feel at peace within ourselves. Allowing ourselves to worry about things that are out of our control is very distracting and takes our attention away from what really matters in life. It is not always easy to find tranquility, but at least there are websites where people can turn when they want someone or something to pray for them whether they are alive or not. There are many people who already pray for friends and family, but spiritualists can also find comfort in going to a site that offers prayer services. "A lot of people go to various sites and they want a little help from God". And that is okay as long as one does not believe that doing so gives them special mana from God. Additionally, praying for anybody who has been wronged or wrongs others is always a good way to become more humble. Whenever we have faith in another person's intentions, it shows how much faith one has in God's power to change our situations. By discovering more on the power of prayer, people can also find reassurance that God is always there for them. The book reviews 37 of the most popular websites on the internet where individuals can pray for something they need, whether it is for general advice or even professional help. Some of these sites include www.prayers-for-losing-weight.com (Prayer to lose weight), www.prayers-for-wedding.com (Prayer to get married), and others like " www.prayerforjobinterviewsuccess.com". For those who have lost a loved one so far, they might wish to go to prayerforwidowsandwidowers.com. There are spiritualists who believe in talking to higher powers, and there are those who prefer to communicate by writing. For such people, they can also visit such sites as www.prayerforgrievingparents.com where people can seek prayers for parents who have lost a child. The book is available on Amazon.com and Barnes and Noble for $9.95 USD or $11.03 CAD or $7.99 UK pounds (ebook) and (print).
